[Sûrah Al-Baqarah (2), Ayah 255]

Allâh! There is no god, but Him; the Ever-Living, the Self Subsisting, the Eternal One. Neither slumber nor sleep can overtake Him. To Him belongs whatsoever is in the Heavens and whatsoever is on the earth. Who is there that can intercede in His Presence, except by His Permission? He Knows what will happen to them (His creatures) in this world, and what will happen to them in the Hereafter; nor shall they comprehend anything at all of His Knowledge except as He Wills. His Throne extends over the Heavens and the earth, and guarding and preserving it, does not exhaust Him, for He is the Exalted, the Almighty. [Sûrah Al-Baqarah (2), Verse 255]

Lillâhi mâ fassamawâtî wamâ fil‘ardî, wa in tubdâ mâ fi anfusikum aw tukhfiâhu yuḥâsibkum bîhîlîh; fayaghfiru limay yashâ‘u wa yu‘adh-dhibu mayyashâ, wallâhu ‘alâ kulli shay‘în qadîr.

To Allah belongs all that is in the Heavens and that is on earth. Whether you disclose what is in your selves or conceal it, Allah will call you to account for it. He will Forgive whom He wishes and will Punish whom He wishes; He has Power over all things.

[Sūrah Al-Baqarah (2), Āyat 284-286]

Allāh will not burden any soul with more than what it can bear. It shall be compensated for whatever good it has done, and it will be punished for whatever evil it has done. (Pray:) “O Our Lord! Do not take us to task if we forget or make a mistake. O Our Lord! Do not place on us a burden like that which you have placed on those before us! O Our Lord! Do not place on us a burden that we do not have the strength to bear! Pardon us, and grant us forgiveness; and have Mercy on us. You are our Protector; so grant us victory over the disbelieving people.”
